ROOTS & CRAYONS

Շնորհակալություն

shnor-ha-ka-loo-TYOON, that means “thank you”

Dear family,

Thank you for bringing Feelings & Emotions into your home. Somewhere at your table, a little one is about to say a word in Armenian with you, and that is how a language stays alive: one kitchen table at a time.

Roots & Crayons comes from a little Armenian community and is made for yours. You don’t need to be fluent: every word comes with an easy sound-it-out line, so you can say it with confidence, whether your Armenian is a little rusty or brand new.

Print, color and play. A grandparent’s voice, a song in the car, a word at bedtime: it all counts, and it all adds up.

P.S. Look for your bonus fun-fact coloring sheet. Every pack hides a different one: collect them all!

From our little Armenian community to yours,

Roots & Crayons

- ◯ One word a day

  Pick a card at breakfast and use the word all day.

- ◯ Hand it to a grandparent

  Let them read the Armenian while little ones point and act it out.

- ◯ Make it theirs

  Color the ink-saver cards, laminate the favorites, let them get worn.

FUN FACT #3 · COLOR ME!

Well done means “live!”

#3

Ապրեմ

ap-RES WELL DONE

When you do something great, Armenians cheer ապրեմ (ap-RES)! It comes from ապրել (ap-REL), to live, so it's like saying “may you live!” Who will you cheer with ապրեմ (ap-RES) today?

Ապրեմ ap-RES, that means “well done”

Thank you for bringing Armenian home.

Make them last

- Print at Actual size (100%). Cardstock, 65–110 lb (176–300 gsm), makes sturdy cards.
- Cut on the dashed lines. Two cuts make four cards.
- To laminate, cut first, space the cards out in the pouch, then trim around each one.
- Punch a corner and keep a set on a ring for the car or the diaper bag.

Three games to play

- Find it. Spread a few cards out. Say a word in Armenian, and your little one finds it.
- Memory match. Print two copies, mix them face down, then flip to find pairs, saying each word.
- Ask Tatik. Hand the cards to a grandparent. They read the Armenian, and kids point or act it out.

Time to color! These outlines are made for crayons. Color in the shapes, the faces, even the letters.
